Akbart then summoned the two sisters to his court, but societal norms of the community, Tana and Riri preferred to immolate themselves in Vadnagar than refuse or disobey the emperor's summons. A samadhi was created in Vadnagar called the Tana Riri Samadhi and the annual classical music festival is held near this Samadhi. Those present at the function this year were Sangeet Natak Academy's Pankaj Bhat, chief of Genius Foundation, Pawan Solanki among many others. The organiser of the festival was Bharat Vyas of Himmatnagar. was Bhara Himmatnagar.

PIGY DITUTIGAL Famous classical singers from India along with accomplished Gujarati dassical singers are invited to give a treat for music lovers. Legend has it that Tansen, the famous court musical of Emperor Akbar, sang Raag Deepaks of ervently that even lamps lit up magically and the singer too suffered from high fever. To get relief, Tansen knew he had to hear the soothing rendition of of Raag Megh Malhar – an antidote to the heat — and thus, headed for Vadnagar where Tana and Rii sang for him and nursed him back to health.
