

Polling of veteran leaders and industrialists

Gautam Adani voted with family :Union Minister Mansukh Mandaviya voted with his family

Ahmedabad The third phase of voting for the 25 Lok Sabha seats of Gujarat on May 7, 2024 is going to be held today. Out of 26 Lok Sabha seats in Gujarat, BJP is unopposed in Surat seat and the remaining 25 seats are being voted on. Then know Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Amit Shah, Bhupendra Patel, Shaktisinh Gohil, Anandiben Patel among other veteran leaders voted in which city and from which booth.

In a short while, Gujarat Congress State President Shaktisinh Gohil will go to vote in Room No. 2 at the Sector-19 facility in Gandhinagar.

Shaktisinh claimed that the sitting MLA's husband entered Vasani village of Gandhinagar illegally after knowing that pro-Congress voting was taking place.

Renowned spiritual guru and propagator of Ramcharit Manas Morari Bapu played an active role in the democratic process by casting his vote for the Lok Sabha elections at a polling station in Talgajarda in Bhavnagar district today. Bapu along with millions of citizens exercised their democratic rights with great enthusiasm. Emphasized that voting is not only a fundamental right, but also a responsibility of every individual towards nation building.

He appealed to people for massive voting.

Speaking to reporters after casting his vote, Bapu called for wider participation in the elections. He said that the festival of democracy is going on in India. Voting is going on in Gujarat and other states today. As a citizen I have fulfilled my responsibility to vote. I have appealed in the past as well and today once again appeal to every citizen to vote, so as to contribute to shaping the future of the country.

Polling in the third phase of Lok Sabha General Election-2024 in 09-Surendranagar Parliamentary Constituency is taking place in a peaceful atmosphere. Padmashri Shahbuddinbhai Rathore, the legendary comedian of the district, exercised his franchise early in the morning at polling booth number 140 at Thangarh in Chotila Assembly. He appealed to the voters to vote so that every voter would perform their moral duty towards the country by giving their sacred and precious vote, saying that as the best citizens of India, everyone should do the sacred duty of voting and participate in this great festival. When the voting process is going on till 6 pm, a few minutes should be reserved for the country.

Porbandar Lok Sabha candidate and Union Minister Mansukh Mandaviya voted in his hometown Hanol. Mansukh Mandaviya voted along with his family and daughters who were voting for the first time.

Ramji visited the temple and reached the polling station with family and people of the village to the sound of cymbals. He expressed hope that NDA will form the government.

Hindu speaker and social activist Kajal Hindustani voted at the Municipal High School in Jamnagar city.

Rajkot claims 70% voting in Kshatriya areas

Ahmedabad There is a lot of enthusiasm among the people regarding the Lok Sabha elections in Gujarat. However, the opposition of the Kshatriya community against the BJP candidate Parshottam Rupala in this election has been much discussed.

BJP candidate from Rajkot Parshottam Rupala is constantly facing the wrath of the Kshatriya community after his statement regarding the Kshatriya community. Jamnagar and Rajkot are seeing the biggest impact in polling today.

In the Kheda Lok Sabha elections, voters went to vote in traditional dress while voting at the Baraiyani Muwadi booth in Kaprupur of Mahudha taluka.

Kshatriya youths came to the polling station with safa tied on their heads and voted together. Above the booth today is Chaturben Dattabhai Sodha, the elder of the village who came to the polling station and cast his vote at the age of 102. Thus even at such an age, he came and voted on his own and provided inspiration to the youth.

A claim that 70% voting has been completed by Kshatriya Samaj on Rajkot Lok Sabha seat. Coordination committee leaders expect 100% voting by the Kshatriya Samaj by the time the polls are over.

Voter traffic at booths reduced as heat rises, Modasa rural parish faces scorching heat

Banaskantha Voting has started in single phase in 25 seats in Gujarat today, including five seats in North Gujarat. More than 98 lakh voters are going to vote today in districts like Gandhinagar, Sabarkantha, Mehsana, Patan, and Banaskantha, starting from Power Center and coming to border areas. Generally, the temperature is high in North Gujarat. Even today, according to the forecast of the Meteorological Department, the temperature will remain high till the evening. Both the main parties BJP and Congress appealed to the voters to vote early.

A youth named Prakash Chowdhury was beaten up by the gang and mob. The youth sought help from the SP at the risk of his life. Ganiben gave a statement that Prakash Chowdhury was doing bogus voting in Dharedra school. On the other hand, Prakash Chaudhary has alleged that he was beaten up by the mob, including Ganiben.

At 3 pm in Mehsana, the temperature has reached 42 degrees. Voters are avoiding going to vote at most of the polling stations in the scorching heat. At that time, the employees are also seen sitting to cool down wherever they get shelter. Over 48 percent polling has been recorded in the district during the 3-hour time period in the afternoon. Voters do not reach the polling station as it is afternoon. However, only a few voters are seen at the polling stations.

A grand procession will take place in the city on the occasion of Parashuram Jayanti on 10th.

Ahmedabad The birth anniversary of Lord Chiranjeev Parashuram Dada, protector of Indian culture, ardent connoisseur of arms and scriptures, will be celebrated on May 10. On this occasion, a grand procession has been organized by Shree Samast Gujarat Brahma Samaj Ahmedabad city.

The procession will start from Sri Karnamuktewara Mahadev Mandir, Sarangpur. While the Yatra will also depart from different areas of the Western Division. All these yatras will reach Football Ground, Kankaria and collect from there and proceed which will be completed by reaching Jawahar Chowk Char Rasta at around 1 PM. Water, buttermilk, sherbet, ice cream and light snacks will be arranged with the help of local organizations at various circles on the way during the yatra. Apart from this, the Yatra will be welcomed at many places along the route by bursting firecrackers and offering aarti to Lord Parashuram Dada.

The procession of Lord Shri Parashuram will leave from Karnamuktewara Mahadev and reach the football ground through Raipur Darwaza, Veda Mandir. In which processions taken out from different areas of Ahmadawa as well as by sections of the society will join the main procession at the football ground. From there the main journey I. G. Ground, Madras Mandir, Khokhara Circle, Physical Ground, Awakar Hall, Jaimala and will reach Jawahar Chowk. After that, a religious meeting has been organized. In which saints and leaders of the society will give blessings, Sri Samast Gujarat Brahma Samaj General Secretary Anil Shukla, women president Dr. Dhariniben Shukla said. The police have started an investigation in the direction from where the quantity of cigarettes was brought and who was selling it to whom.

Mobhi also took potassium gold syenite

Vadodara, 2 members of the Soni family were killed in Nandanvan Society in Tarsali area of Vadodara city. The mobster of the house conspired to kill his father, wife and son by pouring potassium gold cyanide in sugarcane juice. The father and wife died during the treatment. As the police interrogated the father of the accused in the whole matter, he also tried to end his life by taking poisonous substance. He also consumed potassium gold cyanide. The accused and his son are currently undergoing treatment in a critical condition.

While the police called for 2 kits as they were not available in the hospital, but after 24 hours they were useless, informed doctors are saying. After the wife and father died in this whole case, the last rites were done without the knowledge of the police.

'GITB 2024' concludes in Jaipur; Pitches India as wedding destination

Ahmedabad, The 13th edition of India's largest B2B inbound tourism event 'The Great Indian Travel Bazaar' (GITB) concluded here with an ambitious pitch of India as a world's wedding destination under 'Wed in India' initiative. Along with host state Rajasthan, India's premier tourism event saw as many as 9 state tourism boards, including Odisha (theme state), Gujarat, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Madhya Pradesh, Goa and Punjab attracting around 250 FTOs from 52 countries and 16 international wedding planners enquiring about various wedding destinations and the offerings. With over 300 booths in the exhibition, a large number of domestic tour operators and 60 wedding planners engaged with their foreign counterparts resulting in over 11,000 B2B meetings, business deals and 'Coolcation' - Ministry of Tourism's fresh initiative striking a chord among both buyers and sellers. On the 3rd & final day of the expo, a master class by Chef Ajay Chopra saw a large gathering of both Indian and foreign culinary connoisseurs. (1-7)

Akshaya Tritiya Special on COLORS' 'Laxmi Narayan'

Ahmedabad, As the auspicious festival of Akshaya Tritiya draws near, COLORS invites you to embark on a captivating journey with its mythological saga 'Laxmi Narayan Sukh Samarthya SantoOlan' delving into the realms of Hindu mythology to uncover the hidden treasures of this sacred day. Tracing the divine journey of the universe's ideal couple, the show unveils three intriguing stories that shed light on the lesser-known traditions intertwined with the auspiciousness of Akshaya Tritiya. Laxmi Ki Janm Gaatha - According to Hindu mythology, Akshaya Tritiya marks the day of the annual re-appearance of Lord Vishnu's preserver form, Narayan, along with his consort, Laxmi, the goddess of wealth and prosperity. In the celestial event known as the 'Samudra Manthan' or churning of the cosmic ocean, various divine beings, including gods and demons, churned the ocean to extract the nectar of immortality (amrita). As the churning progressed, numerous auspicious entities emerged from the depths of the ocean, one of which was the goddess, Laxmi. (19-10)
